The Enterprise

Do you believe in the
"BUY AT HOME"

doctrine? If you do you should have a space in this department. It costs you but 25¢ a week. The subject matter will be changed each week.

By Home Buying the Consumer Helps
Not Only His Town, but Helps Himself—Every Man With a Heart Leaves Home and Town—Some Should Be Conscience Stricken.

[Copyrighted, 1914, by Thomas J. Sullivan.]
Only the home can found a state. It is the seminary of all other institutions.
There is magic in that little word home. It is a mystic circle that surrounds comforts and virtues never known beyond its haloed limits.

* * *

We need not power or splendor,
Wide hall or lordly dome.
The good, the true, the tender—
These form the wealth of home.

Destroying Your Paradise.

The retail mail order houses are trying to destroy your home and your paradise by inducing you to buy your necessaries from them instead of your local merchants, to the injury of your home industries, home market and home town.

* * *

There is so much difference in buying goods of a home place of business and ordering them by mail from a catalogue house from mere picture or description that I want to point out a few facts that many may never have thought of.

May Examine and Select.

At the home store you make your wants known; the salesman shows you the desired article, helps select or suggest the article best suited to your needs.

* * *

Thus you have an opportunity to examine the quality, to see the style, to select the size and color, as the case may be; you can compare the different grades, and then if everything is satisfactory and in your judgment the price is right you will make the purchase.

Will Exchange or Refund.

When you get home and upon a rigid examination you find a flaw or mar on your purchase, or the article may be too large or too small, or a black instead of a blue, then the next day or the week after you go to your dealer and explain, and he will gladly exchange the item or refund the money.

* * *

And another matter worthy of serious thought is this: Supposing the mail order houses could sell goods cheaper and everybody would order his goods from them.

* * *

The local stores would soon exist only in memory. You would then be at the mercy of the mail order houses entirely and be obliged to send away for everything.

Buy Big Things at Home.

Remember a store cannot be kept up with small purchases if the local money is sent away for the big things.

* * *

This method will result only in ruining your home trade and in helping to build up an enormous corporation in some faraway city.

* * *

The failure to patronize home merchants decreases the value of farms, and town property becomes less valuable, as you well know that if a town goes back both local and surrounding values decrease.

* * *

Send your money away; you get nothing but the goods. Spend your money at home; it will come back to you in better towns, better stores and better social advantages.

Help Build Up Your Own Town.

Is it not more to your interest to help build up your own little city or town than to contribute to the upbuilding of some faraway large city?

* * *

Is it not a fact that if your own town had 10,000 population instead of 1,000 it would be much better for all residents?

* * *

Would there not be much more employment?

* * *

Would not the consumption of products be greatly increased and consequently a farm within a radius of ten miles be worth from $10 to $50 an acre more?

* * *

This being the case, is it only a good thing for the merchant or tradesman if you buy from him?

* * *

Or is it equally as good a thing for you?

True Citizenship.

To Adam paradise was home. To the enterprising among his descendants home is paradise.

* * *

True citizenship is not all in rallying round the flag of our country and singing "Hail, Columbia."

* * *

The true spirit of patriotism is shown by the man who patronizes home industry first, last and all the time.
